

High Tea served on Sundays from 4pm – 6pm

We are very proud of our traditional, Scottish High Teas. Just in case you need a reminder, a High-Tea is a freshly cooked meal, served with tea and hot toast and followed by a selection of Scotland's finest homebakes; at least it is at the Teapots Restaurant. It doesn't get much better than this!

Feeling spontaneous? Come in and choose from our Roast of the Day or Homemade Pie of the Day, both dishes accompanied by vegetables and potatoes
